MY SOUL RUBBER'S ONLY...

A woman with long, dark, voluminous hair is the central figure. She is wearing a black, shiny, corset-style bodysuit with multiple horizontal straps and buckles across the chest and waist. The bodysuit has a high-cut, open side. She is looking directly at the camera with a serious expression. The background is dark and moody, with a diagonal line running from the top right towards the bottom left. The overall aesthetic is sensual and provocative.
